

National Meningitis Association Gala 2009
GIVE KIDS A SHOT!
"A Benefit to Save Lives in the Fight Against Meningitis, a Vaccine-Preventable Disease"
Tuesday, May 12, 2009, 6:30 PM
The Rainbow Room, Rockefeller Center, NY, NY

HONORING

Nancy L. Snyderman, M.D.
NBC News
Chief Medical Editor

Paul Offit, M.D.
Chief, Division of Infectious Diseases,
The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia

And presenting the

NANCY FORD SPRINGER INSPIRATION AWARD HONOREES

Melanie Benn

John Kach

Nick Springer

HONORARY CHAIRS

Alec Baldwin

Meredith Vieira

CHAIRS

Sara Herbert-Galloway

Gary Springer

NMA is proud to announce its inaugural Gala on May 12, 2009, to be held at New York City's famed landmark, The Rainbow Room. This signature fundraising event will help NMA continue and expand its vital work in the fight against meningitis. Join us in honoring Dr. Nancy L. Snyderman, NBC News Chief Medical Editor and frequent Today show contributor, and Dr. Paul Offit, Chief, Division of Infectious Diseases at The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. We will also recognize Nancy Ford Springer Inspiration Award honorees, Melanie Benn, John Kach and Nick Springer, who are survivors of meningitis and whose accomplishments inspire us all. Leadership includes Honorary Chairs Alec Baldwin and Meredith Vieira, and Chairs Sara Herbert-Galloway and Gary Springer.

For tickets/tables, Scroll of Honor listings and additional information, please call 1.866.366.3662 or email gala@nmaus.org

National Meningitis Association Gala 2009
GIVE KIDS A SHOT!

738 Robinson Farms Drive • Marietta, GA 30068 • 1.866.366.3662
gala@nmaus.org • www.nmaus.org